FUND OVERVIEW

This actively managed ETF offers investors long-term total returns by investing in dividend paying equities that appear undervalued or have attractive valuations. The manager takes into account the stage of the economic cycle when positioning the portfolio, while employing a top-down approach to sector allocation and a bottom-up approach to security selection. Canadian equity securities are the main focus, though up to 30% US exposure may be added at the manager's discretion.

RELATIVE TO BENCHMARK

The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns, including changes in unit value and do not take into account sales, redemption or optional charges or income taxes payable by a security holder that would have reduced returns.

Use of benchmark: The S&P/TSX Composite Index is a capitalization-weighted index designed to measure market activity of stocks listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange. This index is used as a benchmark to help you understand the Fund's performance relative to the general performance of broader Canadian equity market.

¹The Trailing 12 Month Yield is calculated on the Fund's actual distributions paid to investors over the past 12 months based on NAV. All distributions are paid in cash.

KEY REASONS TO INVEST

- To collect an attractive monthly income stream
- To position portfolios in higher quality stocks to help mitigate downside risk
- The option to benefit from the compounding effect of dividend reinvestment
- Dividend investing has historically resulted in outperformance over time versus the broad market with lower volatility

INVESTMENT PROCESS

Actively Managed ETFs

Actively managed ETFs combine the benefits of traditional asset management with the structural benefits of ETFs, such as improved liquidity, transparency and cost-effectiveness. Investors gain exposure to a portfolio that is overseen by a team of investment professionals, constantly analyzing and selecting the best opportunities within a given area of the market.

First Asset Active Canadian Dividend ETF is managed by following the process depicted below. This well defined process provides the potential for increased consistency and replicability of performance results by ensuring that portfolio buy and sell decisions are made objectively, rather than by emotional or subjective triggers.
