TRAILING COMMISSIONS

Your dealer is paid a quarterly servicing fee, also known as a trailing commission. If you purchase your securities through a discount brokerage account, we may also pay trailing commissions to your discount broker. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee. The trailing commission is paid for as long as you own the Units. The trailing commission paid to a dealer, as an annual percentage of the net asset value of the Units purchased by clients of that dealer, is 0.75% per annum, plus applicable taxes.

OTHER FEES

- Redemption Fee - The Manager may charge a discretionary redemption fee of up to 0.25% of the exchange or redemption proceeds to offset certain transaction costs associated with the exchange or redemption of Units.
- Brokerage Fees - You may pay brokerage fees to your dealer when you purchase and sell Units of the Fund.

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have: (a) the right to cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase, or (b) other rights and remedies if this document or the Fund’s prospectus contains a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory. For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
